Critical Red Flags Detected

No peer review information — papers may not be reviewed

CRITICAL

FINANCIAL RISK

Rs. 8,000 - 50,000

Potential unrecoverable loss per researcher

- Registration: Rs. 3,000 - 8,000
- Travel & stay: Rs. 5,000 - 35,000
- Time cost: 40 - 80 hours preparation
- No refund policy = zero legal recourse

ACADEMIC & CAREER RISK

- Publication flagged as predatory by employers
- Scopus/WoS claims false — paper will not index
- NAAC auditors flag predatory publications
- No peer review — zero academic validation
- Reputational risk in grant applications

Recommended Actions for Researchers

- 1 Ask the organizer: 'Can you provide the full postal address of the venue'
- 2 Ask the organizer: 'What is the specific journal name where papers will be published?'
- 3 Ask the organizer: 'What is your refund policy if the conference moves?'
- 4 Request written answers by email — verbal assurances are difficult to verify
